m3 Signs Up To Builder's Profile

Management Cubed Limited (m3) is the latest organisation to sign up to the Builder's Profile in a move which will further reduce duplication amongst existing pre-qualification systems.

The Builder's Profile is an online service enabling companies to submit the same pre-qualification information to different contractors and clients without filling in a multitude of bespoke questionnaires. By registering with the Builder's Profile, m3, one of ASDA's construction project managers, will be able to access the details of its supply chain instantly at the touch of a button – rather than waiting for paper questionnaires to be completed and returned.

The Builder's Profile provides contractors with answers to all the common pre-qualification questions in whatever format they require, which can then be accredited or audited as required.

Craig Le Grice from m3 explained the decision to use the Builder's Profile:

"The Builder's Profile offers a cost effective solution for both m3 and our suppliers to the long-standing problem of pre-qualification in the construction industry. All the information that we need to pre-qualify our supply chain is readily available via the Builder's Profile, allowing us to free up resources for other parts of the business. We are also helping our suppliers by relieving them of yet another pre-qualification questionnaire."
